[XVIII*th* Year.] THURSDAY, January 27, 1763. [N°. 925.]

The following LETTER, from an unknown Hand, we give our Readers as we receiv'd it, and ſubmit it to the Cenſure or Approbation of the Public.

Difficile eſt plurimùm virtutem revereri qui Semper ſecundâ fortunâ ſit uſus——

Mr. GREEN,

HAVING obſerved that your Paper is ſometimes enriched with Letters, expreſsly wrote for the Advantage of this Province, without any regard to ſelfiſh and lucrative Purpoſes, I beg you will give the following Hints a Place, which are truly of that Nature; being ſent you with the ſole View of removing a real and melancholy Grievance.

Of all the various charitable Inſtitutions, there is not one that appears to me more laudable or more becoming a well govern'd Community than the Hoſpitals for the Reception and Relief of the Poor and Sick. The Benefit of ſuch Hoſpitals is very apparent. It is true, there has been, as there ought to be, a Proviſion made for the Support of the Poor of this Province; but I muſt confeſs, it does not appear to me to be either ſufficient, or well calculated, for the Purpoſe deſigned. How this has happened, or why it is not remedied, is not eaſy to ſay. But leſt I ſhould be ſuppoſed to Reaſon upon falſe Principles, let any humane Perſon examine the Situation of the Poor in this Province, and he will find what I advance to be Matter of Fact. It will, no doubt, be ſaid, that this is a cheap and plentiful Country, and therefore the preſent Allowance is ſufficient; but to ſpeak my Sentiments freely on this Head, I muſt confeſs this does not appear to be the Caſe. Let any Perſon but conſider one Day's Expence, and he will find the preſent cuſtomary Allowance for the Poor, inſufficient for the meaneſt Food and Cloathing. What is 1000 or 1200 Weight of Tobacco? And is not this an extraordinary Allowance? Alas! Is there no humane, nor tender Hearted Patriot, in the true Meaning of that Term, who will ſtart up and propoſe ſome Method to redreſs this Grievance? Will no one diſplay his Eloquence in this large Field in behalf of Miſery and Diſtreſs? Did this Neglect of our Fellow Creatures anſwer any good End or Deſign, I might perhaps, tho' not without Pain and Grief, be Silent; but Compaſſion for the Poor and Afflicted, and the Good of the Community, forbid it. If therefore ſome Method could be fallen on, to be ſubſtituted in the Room of that now made uſe of, I ſhould be for propoſing ſomething of the following Nature, viz. That Hoſpitals, or Alms Houſes, ſhould be erected in the different Counties of this Province. I confeſs myſelf a very inadequate Judge of theſe Matters; yet by the Light of Reaſon and Common Senſe, I am led to think, if the Poor were placed in Hoſpitals, it would not only be a real Saving to the Province (if under proper Regulations) by making ſeveral of thoſe who receive Alms, uſeful Members to Society, but by leſſening the Miſeries of the Diſtreſſed in this World, we ſhould be laying up Proviſion for our own Happineſs in the next. I have little to Hope from theſe Hints; Wiſe Men may pick ſomething Profitable out of a Fool's Propoſal, which is all I expect. I ſhall only add, that the many noble and magnificent Hoſpitals and Charity Houſes, reflect as great an Honour on our Mother Country, as any Thing whatever.

PHILANTHROPOS.

Extract of a Letter addreſſed by the Nobility of Majorca to the King of Spain.

SIRE,

THE Nobility of your Kingdom of Majorca, entreat your Majeſty to entruſt the Defence of that Iſland to their Zeal. They think they ſhall not preſume too much, if they ſet at Defiance the whole Power of thoſe Iſlanders, who, in abuſive and impertinent Papers, inſult the Spaniſh Nation. Majorca appearing to us too narrow a Field to exerciſe our Valour, we beſeech your Majeſty to accept the Half of our Forces to carry the War home to our Enemies. The other Half will ſuffice for the Defence of this Kingdom, if they are ſo vain as to attack it.

Your Majeſty's Enemies will be forced to confeſs, that Spain is a Veſſel ſecured by two Anchors in the Storm, Religion and Morals. After the Example of the Romans, who, in former Ages received Peace from our Anceſtors, we preſume to exhort your Majeſty never to grant Peace, but with the Laurel in your Hand, this is the favourable Moment to raiſe to the greateſt Height, the Glory of the Nation, by humbling England, who madly attempts the Ruin of Europe. As ſhe conducts herſelf only from Views of Commerce, that is, of ſolid Gain, ſhe makes War without loving it, againſt warlike Nations, who deſires nothing better than to be provoked to paſs beyond the Bounds of Moderation preſcribed to well-governed Nations. Silver and Gold will be exhauſted at London, as they were at Carthage, but Virtue, Conſtancy and Vigour, will not be exhauſted among us, any more than they were in ancient Rome, your Majeſty's Enemies will deſtroy themſelves by the Violence of the Efforts we ſhall compel them to make.

Sept. 30. The following is Part of a Letter to a Perſon of Diſtinction from Peterſburgh, dated Auguſt 21. "The troubled State of Things here ſtill continues. All are anxious to know their Iſſue, and it is far from being eaſy even to conjecture what that Iſſue will be. The Party of Prince Ivan (or John) ſhew themſelves daily with leſs Reſerve, and their Silence hitherto, is rather attributed to the Depth of their Councils, than to any Conſciouſneſs of the Vanity of their Proſpects, The Step taken by Catherine II. in declaring herſelf Empreſs, inſtead of Tutreſs of the Heir Apparent, has inflamed her Enemies, and, upon Reflexion, been looked upon as imprudent, even by her Friends. The pecuniary Arguments with which ſhe has ſtopped many Mouths, open many more; and as ſuch Reſources are far from being inexhauſtible, they are inſufficient to ſuppreſs the Voice of Faction. Some Days ago the Voyage to Moſcow was put off; the Preparations for the Coronation ſuſpended; and the whole Attention of the Miniſtry employed to fix her Majeſty firmly on the Throne. The Method propoſed for that End is, as it is now publicly ſaid, a Treaty of Marriage with the young Ivan; whom the Empreſs is gone to viſit in his Retirement, to ſee whether ſuch a Conſort will ſuit her Taſte, or be conducive to her Intereſt. This incognito Voyage is much talked of; certain it is, that her Imperial Majeſty has not appeared for ſeveral Days paſt in this Metropolis. The Accounts of Ivan are various; but thoſe who ſpread or give credit to the Reports of his Simplicity or Idiotiſm, are certainly miſtaken. It is well known that this Prince has had the Advantages of a good Education, added to his natural Talents and Endowments; and that his Confinement has been alleviated by an Application to thoſe Branches of Science that are ſuitable to his Rank. Even the late Empreſs (who beheld in Ivan a Rival, whoſe Pretenſions were more than ſpecious) was careful and attentive about his Education, and appointed Maſters to inſtruct him in the Sciences that become a Prince. Should the preſent Empreſs take this illuſtrious Exile to her Bed and Throne, this would be, no doubt, one of the beſt Means of uniting all Parties, of healing all Diviſions, and of adding to her domeſtic Comfort, national Tranquility and Concord.

"The Baron de Breteuil, Miniſter of France, is arrived here: He is a polite, inſinuating Man; and he will indeed have Occaſion for all his Dexterity and Addreſs, to ſucceed in his Negociations here, or, rather, to obtain even the moſt remote Appearance of Succeſs."

On Monday Evening laſt was conducted to Warwick Gaol, one Keen, who kept a little Farm at Wincot, near Tamworth, for ſtealing about two Strikes of Lime from one of his Neighbours. For a Month paſt he has had ſeveral Quarrels with his Wife, and ſhe has been heard to ſay, that he would kill her as he did the Man. On his being carried before a Juſtice of the Peace for the Theft, and denying the Commitment of Jt, his Wife, and Son, who were preſent, ſaid, that he had better confeſs, leſt worſe ſhould come of it; on which he acknowledged, that about four Years ago, he and another Man being drinking at a public Houſe, in Lincolnſhire, they enticed a Stranger into a Wood, under Pretence of getting a Neſt, where, being arrived, they knocked him down, the other Man, cut his Throat, and they robbed him of a 36 s. Piece, and ſome other Money, a ſilk Handkerchief, a Cork Screw, &c. and that he had not ſeen his Confederate for a great while.

October 5. The Miſunderſtanding between a noble Lord, and a Member of the Hon. Houſe of Commons, which occaſioned their fighting a Duel on Tueſday, on Bagſhot-heath, (or as ſome ſay, on Hounſlow-heath) it is feared will bring on other Differences among thoſe, who, by their Rank and Stations, ought to unite, for otherwiſe it is feared their Example will deſcend, the Conſequences of which none can tell.

BOSTON, December 16.

Yeſterday arrived here Capt. Rogers, in 25 Days from Newfoundland, by whom we have Advice, that a French Frigate had been cruiſing on the Banks for ſome Time paſt, and taken ſeveral Engliſh Veſſels, but where belonging we cannot learn:—That Capt. Greatreaks in a Ship with a Letter of Marque from Briſtol for Newfoundland, came up with the Frigate, and engaged her; that Capt. Greatreaks fired a Broadſide into her, and carried away ſome of her Maſts; the Frigate then endeavoured to get off, but Capt. Greatreaks boarded and took her, and carried her into Trinity-Bay: The Frigate had above 200 Men on board.

We hear that the Furrs brought into Albany this Year, only from Detroit and thoſe Quarters, amount to 100,000 New-York Currency. (A good Proof of the Importance of the Conqueſt of Canada.)

NEW-YORK, December 23.

Laſt Monday the Prize Brigantine, called Le Bon, Donne de Dieu, from Bourdeaux to the Cape, was ſent in here by the Harlequin, Capt. Wright, which was taken the 30th of November laſt, at 5 o'Clock in the Evening, within a few Leagues of Fort Dauphin, and next Day, in proceeding for this Place, was brought to by Capt. Kennedy, in a Providence Privateer, who put 17 Men on board, and ordered her to Mangeneel Bay, where two other Providence Privateers claimed a Share, and each have put Prize Masters on board. Her Cargo is about 40 Tons of Wines, with 160 Barrels of Flour.

BOSTON, January 3.

Friday last Capt. Oliver arrived at Marblehead from Lisbon, which Place he left the 15*th of* November, and by Letters from thence and the Engliſh Prints to the 26*th of* October laſt, we have collected the following Intelligence, viz.

BERLIN, October 12.

A FIELD-COURIER, preceded by ſeveral Poſtillions, blowing their Horns, arrived here Yeſterday with the agreeable News that the City of Schweidnitz ſurrendered on the Ninth Inſtant, and that the Garriſon are made Priſoners of War. The other Articles are not yet known, but will ſpeedily be publiſhed.

The Advices received from Saxony for ſome Days paſt are very unfavourable. Our Troops there being greatly inferior to the Number of the Enemy, have been obliged to abandon three Poſts, but nevertheleſs continued to maintain themſelves at Freyberg.

Halle, Oct. 9. We have received certain Advice, that the Auſtrian Troops, and thoſe of the Empire, loſt a great Number of Men in the 8 different Attacks which they made, the 27th, 28th, and 29th of September, againſt the advanced Poſts of the Army of Prince Henry of Pruſſia. Among others it is aſſured, that of the two Regiments of Cuiraſſiers, there remain but 300 Men, all the reſt having been either killed or wounded. Thierheim and Old Wolfenbuttle's Regiments of Foot are almoſt deſtroyed. It is reported likewiſe that Major-General Baron de Butler, and the Count de Serbelloni, were killed there.

We muſt however acknowledge that our Troops retreated, and loſt ſome Poſts; but what is moſt aſtoniſhing is, that they paſſed the Mulda in the Face of the Enemy without being in the leaſt moleſted by them; which is a certain Proof that we could not have ſuffered ſo much as the Auſtrians would make the World believe. Gen. Haddick had formed a Plan to drive the Pruſſians out of all Saxony, and made himſelf ſure of Succeſs, on account of his Superiority.

Satisdarff, Oct. 1. On the 29th ult. the Baron de Haddick attacked the Sieur de Hulſen, forced two Abbaties, [Defences made of felled Trees] carried three Redoubts, took 4 Pieces of Cannon, and made near 400 Priſoners. All this was done with the Loſs of about 500 Men; and the Enemy's Loſs is ſtill more conſiderable. Two falſe Attacks were made at the ſame Time, by Way of Diverſion to the firſt. Since this Affair General Hulſen has abandoned Wilſdruff in the Night, and retired beyond the Ravin of Muſſen; and Prince Henry has been obliged to quit his advantageous Poſition behind the Weiſſeritz.

Egra, Oct. 2. The 27th of laſt Month the Prince of Lichtenſtein having attacked the Pruſſians poſted at Seida, drove them from their Poſt, and took two Pieces of Cannon, and near 400 Priſoners.

Nordheim, Oct. 14. The Allied Troops began to cannonade Caſſel the 10th Inſt. and the ſame Day a Train of heavy Artillery ſet out from Munden for the ſame Purpoſe.

Liſbon, Sept. 19. The Spaniſh Army is at Caſtel-Blanco, but 8 Leagues from the Camp of Abrantes, the only Barrier remaining between the Enemy and this Capital.

From Prince Henry's Camp at Freyberg, Oct. 6. All the Enemy's Projects have been rendered ineffectual. Our whole Army has paſſed the Mulda in four Columns, without the leaſt Loſs. That of the Enemies, in the different Attacks, according to the Report of Deſerters, amounts to above 2000 Men in killed and wounded, and we have made at leaſt 300 Priſoners.

Paris, Oct. 15. The Duke of Bedford is expected here from Fontainbleau. His Grace, we are told, being aſſured of the King of Spain's Conſent to the Peace, was juſt going to ſign the Preliminaries, when News came of the Surrender of the Havannah. The Negociation hath ſince taken another Turn, and the Public do not know the State of it at preſent.

Oct. 16. Letters from Spain adviſe, that the Count d'Aranda, in the Account he hath ſent to the King of the Operations ſince he hath been at the Head of the Army, promiſes before two Months are at an End, to make a Conqueſt of the greateſt Part of Portugal; and that he hopes to hear Maſs at Liſbon on Chriſtmas Day.

At the Court at St. James's, October 14, 1762, Preſent,

The KING's moſt Excellent MAJESTY in Council.

HIS Majeſty having been pleaſed to appoint the Right Honourable George Dunk, Earl of Halifax, to be one of his Principal Secretaries of State, his Lordſhip was this Day, by his Majeſty's Command, ſworn one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

Whitehall, Oct. 16. The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint the Right Honourable George Grenville, George Hay, Doctor of Laws, Thomas Orby Hunter, Eſq; the Honourable John Forbes, Hans Stanley, Eſq; the Right Hon. George Buſſy Villiers, commonly called Lord Viſcount Villiers, and Thomas Pelham, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain and Ireland, and of the Dominions, Iſlands, and Territories thereunto reſpectively belonging.

LONDON.

October 16. Yeſterday the Earl of Halifax kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand on being appointed Secretary of State in the Room of the Honourable Mr. Grenville, who is appointed Firſt Lord of the Admiralty.

The Honourable and Reverend Dr. Keppel, Brother to the Earl of Albemarle, has kiſſed the King's Hand on his being appointed Biſhop of Exeter.

On Tueſday the Cambridge and Penzance Men of War, arrived at Plymouth with the Jamaica Fleet under Convoy.

Great Diligence is uſed in equipping the Fleet deſigned to cover our Deſcents on the Coaſt of Spain, and it is ſaid Admiral Hawke will have the Command.

We hear that the 8000 additional Troops, requeſted by his Portugueſe Majeſty, are to be embarked on board 16 Tranſports as ſoon as poſſible, and to ſail under Convoy of four Men of War and two Frigates.

October 19. Monſieur Ternay, late naval Commander at Newfoundland, is returned to Breſt with his Squadron. He was met with in the Channel by the Union Man of War, and narrowly eſcaped being ſeen by the Fleet under the Command of Sir Charles Hardy.

On the 4th Inſtant the Prince of Conde and the Marquis of Granby had a long Interview on the Banks of the Ohme.

There are no leſs than 32 Men of War now building in the different Dock-Yards in the Kingdom.

On Tueſday Night there was a very hot Preſs in the River for Seamen, when a great Number were picked up, and put on board the Tender lying off the Tower.

We hear that Orders have been ſent to Admiral Corniſh, in the Eaſt-Indies, with his Squadron, to invade the Manillas.

Letters from Liſbon, by Way of Holland, of the 11th ult. adviſe, that 15,000 Engliſh and Portugueſe Troops were entrenched about eight Miles from Abrantes, the Paſs for Liſbon; which would ſtop the Progreſs of the Spaniards, and cover that Metropolis; but that the Provinces of Tralos Montes, Minho, and Beira, were expoſed to the Enemy.

Very ſtrong Reports ſtill prevail, that a late Miniſter will ſpeedily be reinſtated in his former high Employments.

On Thurſday laſt, an Expreſs was diſpatched from the Admiralty to Commodore Moore in the Downs, as was alſo another at the ſame Time for Portſmouth.

By Letters from Leghorn we learn, that the Gibraltar Frigate of 20 Guns, and 104 Men, has taken a French Frigate of 36 Guns, and 390 Men, and carried her into Cyprus.

We hear that great Quantities of Cloths, ſuch as Long Ells, &c. have within this little While been bought up, to the Amount of 100,000 l. in order to be ſent to the Havannah.

The laſt Letters from Cadiz bring Advice, that Admiral Saunders has been ſeveral Times ſeen cruizing off that Port with the greateſt Part of his Squadron, inſomuch that nothing can paſs in or out there without his Knowledge.

October 21. About Four o'Clock, on Wedneſday Afternoon, an Expreſs arrived at St. James's from the King of Pruſſia, with the agreeable News of the Surrender of Schweidnitz.

The Siege had been proſecuted with ſuch Vigour, that on the Ninth Inſtant, there were two Breaches made, one of them wide enough for ſix Men a-breaſt to enter, and the other for four; upon which the King made Preparations to attack the Place by Storm; when a Chance-Shot from the Beſiegers blew up one of the Powder Magazines in the Town, which threw the Inhabitants and Garriſon into ſuch Conſternation and Terror, as well as ſo greatly damaged the Town and Fortifications, that the Governor came directly to a Reſolution of ſurrendering the Town to the King of Pruſſia on his own Terms.

The Garriſon amounted to 8000 Men, who ſurrendered at Diſcretion Priſoners of War. In the Town were likewiſe found about 3000 Pruſſians, Priſoners and Deſerters; alſo the famous Baron de Warkotſh, and the Prieſt, who laſt Year formed the Deſign of giving up the King of Pruſſia, dead or alive, to the Auſtrians; with many others, who had from Time to Time given Intelligence to his Enemies; and all thoſe who were acceſſary to the Betraying the Town laſt Year. It is no Wonder, therefore, as this Place was the Refuge of ſo many Villains, that it ſhould hold out to the laſt Moment.

The Agents of the Hermione Prize will make a Dividend on Monday next, on board the Active Man of War, of the Treaſure found on board, to the Amount of 500,000 l. at which Time it is ſaid, Sir Piercy Brett and Admiral Saunders will be paid their Shares.

On Friday and Saturday laſt, Lord Mark Kerr's Regiment of Dragoons marched through Stratford, for Colcheſter, in their Way to Harwich, where, it is ſaid, they are to embark for Germany, ſhould the War continue.

For ſome Days paſt, ſeveral Corps of Troops have been filing off towards Portſmouth, in order to embark there for Portugal, whither alſo a Number of Tranſports, to be convoyed by Ships of the Line, are going with Stores and Ammunition of all Kinds.

Two large Men of War, are by the Commiſſioners of the Navy, ordered to be built at the King's Yard at Plymouth.

October 23. We hear the following Promotions are ready to take Place:

Sir Thomas Stanhope, and Hon. Auguſtus Hervey, Colonels of Marines.

Tueſday the Britannia Man of War, a Firſt Rate, was launched at Portſmouth, amidſt a great Croud of ſplendid Spectators. At Night there was a grand Ball, &c. the whole was conducted with the greateſt Decorum.

Yeſterday the Subſcribers to the 9,600,000 l. made good the laſt Payment of Ten per Cent. on that Capital at the Bank.

We hear that an Order is ſent to all his Majeſty's Yards for the Artificers to work double Hours, with all poſſible Diligence.

It is now ſaid, that unleſs ſome ſpeedy Alterations happen in the Diſpoſition of the Court of Spain, with Regard to the Terms of Peace, the Duke of Bedford will ſhortly return to England.

October 26. It is ſaid that a Squadron of Britiſh Ships has, or will ſhortly make it's Appearance off the Brazils, in order to ſecure that Part of his Portugueſe Majeſty's Dominions, and thereby defeat any Deſigns of the French and Spaniards againſt thoſe Settlements.

It is reported that freſh Inſtructions have been ſent to the Duke of Bedford.

Great Preparations are making at the Tower for ſome other Expedition againſt our Enemies.

Yeſterday and this Day it was currently reported, that certain Advice is received here, That Col. Draper, with the Troops, &c. under his Command, has made great Progreſs in the Reduction of the Manillas, and that an Account of the taking that important Place is hourly expected.

For ſeveral Days paſt great Quantities of Stores, Ammunition, &c. with ſeveral Pieces of Cannon, have been ſhipped off for Portugal, and great Quantities of various Kinds of Merchandize.

Portſmouth, October 25. This Morning came up to Spithead the following Men of War, viz. Northumberland, Lord Colvill, Shrewſbury, Bedford, and Minerva, from Newfoundland.

BOSTON, January 3.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Liſbon, dated November 9, 1762.

"Our laſt Advices from England are to the 26th ult. from whence we infer, that nothing will be concluded before the Parliament meets, and it ſeems to be much doubted whether a Reconciliation between the contending Powers can be compromiſed this Seaſon; Spain they ſay is obſtinate in their Demands, and our preſent Situation does not intitle them to any great Indulgence, unleſs it be with a View to the Preſervation of this Country, where, thank GOD, we are eaſed of our Fears for the preſent, as the Rigour of the Winter Seaſon has compelled the Spaniards to retire, without effecting any Thing of much Conſequence; but if Peace is not concluded, they will of courſe renew their Efforts in the Spring, in which Caſe we hope for further Aſſiſtance from England, which, though they may ſave the Kingdom from Conqueſt, cannot prevent the Commerce from being reduced to the loweſt Ebb."

"GOD be praiſed we are now relieved from all immediate Fears of the Enemy here: The Winter ſet in with great Vigour in a few Days after my laſt to you of the 11th of October, and in ſuch a Manner that the heavy Rains and violent Winds compelled the Spaniards to retreat, and we now underſtand that almoſt all their Army is cantoned in their own Territories, where it is preſumed they muſt take up their Winter Quarters, and we may hope that if Peace ſhould not take Place before they renew their Attacks in the Spring, ſome more Aſſiſtance will be furniſhed us from England; and that theſe People will, by Degrees, become more warlike, and be in a better Condition to ſtand on the Defenſive. We are happy in eſcaping as we have done; for, had the Enemy acted like Officers, and Men of Spirit, this Country might eaſily have been ſubdued in one Campaign. Thus, however, we have obtained a Reſpite from the worſt of Events, and may eſteem ourſelves happy in it. The Rains and Winds were conſtant and exceſſive ſevere for near 3 Weeks."

Capt. Oliver adds, that upon the Retreat of the Spaniards from Portugal, three of the beſt Regiments belonging to the Spaniſh Army deſerted, and came over to the Portugueſe, having got to Liſbon two or three Days before he ſailed; that they were immediately put under the Command of Engliſh Officers, and that he ſaw them exerciſe before the Palace in Liſbon, the King and Queen being preſent, and that they performed much to their Majeſties Satisfaction.—Many Swiſs Troops were in theſe three Regiments.

NEW-YORK, January 6.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at the Havannah, to another in this City, dated Nov. 27, 1762.

"By a Veſſel from Jamaica, we have Advice, that Commodore Keppel has taken off Cape François, 12 Sail of Ships from Bourdeaux, with 2000 Troops on board, under Convoy of a Frigate; and that he has alſo taken 9 Sail from the Cape for France, under Convoy of a Ship pierced for 60 Guns. The Veſſel that brought the above Account, ſpoke with one of the Prizes going to Jamaica. The General is impatient to have a Confirmation of this glorious News."

On Tueſday Evening arrived here the Ship Falls, Capt. Thomas Collins, in 52 Days from Cadiz, which he left the 13th of November laſt, in Company with the Grace, Capt. Chambers, for this Port, and the Pennſylvania Packet, Capt. Gardiner, for Philadelphia, which he parted with in Lat. 39, Long. 14. Six Days before he left Cadiz, they received Advice there, that a Battle had been fought in Portugal, between the Spaniards and the united Forces of the Portugueſe and Engliſh, in which the Spaniards had been defeated. The Accounts Capt. Collins received were very imperfect, as the Spaniards, who came on board, were very reſerved, and none of the Engliſh were ſuffered to go on Shore; ſo that he could get no certain or particular Account of the Battle, or any Circumſtances attending it.——Some unconnected Expreſſions that dropt from the Spaniards who came on board was all the Account he could get, from which he underſtood the following Particulars.——That the Slaughter was conſiderable on both Sides, that the Spaniards had loſt 2000 or more, and were driven from the Field—and retiring,—not likely to ſucceed in their Deſigns upon Portugal.—Heard nothing of the Spaniards having taken Oporto, or any other Place in Portugal.—

to Cadiz two 70 Gun Ships, and most of the other Spanish Vessels were unrigged, and lying by the Walls.

PHILADELPHIA, January 20.

Extract of a Letter from New-York, Jan. 15.

"Yesterday arrived the Ship Grace, Captain Chambers, from Cadiz, (a Cartel Ship) came out with the Pennsylvania Packet, Captain Gardiner, and kept Company most of the Passage. On the 4th of December they fell in with the Renown Man of War, had been out Fourteen Days from England, who informed Chambers, that upon his Arrival in America he would hear of a Peace. He did not send his Boat on board, but proceeded for the West-Indies. Chambers was also brought to by the Le Ola, a French Frigate of 20 Guns, and 200 Men, but he could not find out what her Errand was, nor what Place she was bound to.

"By Capt. Chambers we have further Advice, that the Spaniards cry out against the King's Favourite Minister he brought from Italy with him, who governs the Kingdom with the most despotic Sway. It is supposed the late Governor of the Havannah (Don Juan de Pardo, of one of the first Families in Spain) and the Marquis del Ryal Transporta, who commanded the Fleet, will be hardly dealt with; all the Money brought from thence is stopped by an Order from Court at the Custom House, it being reported that upon the Capitulation the King's Treasury was robbed. The French Interest is great in Spain, and at Cadiz particularly, so that the English, who still remain in that Town, dare hardly shew their Heads. There was in Cadiz, under a Vice and Rear Admiral, 13 Ships of the Line ready for Sea. They are blocked up by two Frigates, who come to the Mouth of the Harbour every Day. A Vessel of 32 Guns lately attacked three Xebeques at Anchor in the Road, killed them 20 Men, and forced them to return into the Harbour.

"The English Fleet under Sir Charles Saunders is at Gibraltar, to watch the Motions of the French and Spanish Squadrons, who having joined, cruize in the Mediterranean, and want to force the Passage of the Straits.

"The Spanish Captain of the Hermione, and his two principal Officers, are now in the Castle of Cadiz, and probably will lose their Heads. Another Ship from Lima is sharply looked for, she being to sail two Months after the Hermione."

ANNAPOLIS, January 27.

Yesterday Morning Died, at his Seat on Patuxent River, near his Iron-Works, in the 56th Year of his Age, the venerable Mr. RICHARD SNOWDEN, a Gentleman universally and deservedly Esteem'd, who has left a sorrowful Widow, numerous Offspring, Family, Friends and Acquaintance, to lament a most tender Husband, indulgent Parent, kind Master, and chearful and agreeable Companion. He was of a most benevolent and humane Disposition, remarkably Hospitable and Generous in his Entertainment of Strangers, as well as his intimate Acquaintance. By a diligent Application to the extensive Business which he was a long Time engag'd in, he acquired an affluent Fortune, with a fair unblemish'd Character; and led the Life of a Christian truly worthy of Imitation. During his last Confinement, which was long and tedious, he behaved with great Composure and Resignation to the Divine Will, and met the King of Terrors with the utmost Serenity and Fortitude of Mind. Mark the perfect Man, and behold the Upright, for the End of that Man is Peace. Psal. xxxvii. 37.

AS the Scheme I some Time ago offered to the PUBLIC, for Circulating a Library through the Province, is not likely to meet with the Success I expected, I presume it must be owing to the too great Latitude of my Plan; the Communication between this and the other Parts of the Province, not being as yet upon so regular an Establishment, as to admit of it's being carried into Execution in so great an Extent, to the Satisfaction of all Parties. For this Reason, I am advised by my Friends to decline all Thoughts of pushing it any further for the present, as premature, and to contract it within such Limits, that every Subscriber may, with very little Trouble, have the full Benefit of it. I propose therefore to confine my Subscriptions to ANNAPOLIS, and a Circle of Thirty Miles about it. I presume no one, who has the least Taste for BOOKS, or any Inclination to improve his Mind, can think much of the Expence of one Guinea a Year, for the Use of such a valuable Collection, so plentifully abounding with Matter both for his Use and Amusement; nor can I conceive how Gentlemen, who either cannot afford, or do not choose to lay out large Sums of Money in Books, can fall upon a better Expedient for attaining the Means of Knowledge, than by some such Scheme as I have proposed. If my present Plan is in any Respect exceptionable, and not well calculated to answer the Purpose intended, I must beg Leave to repeat the Request I made in my former Address to the Public, That any Person would be so good as to point out it's Defects, and to favour me with such Improvements, as may put it upon the best Footing for all concerned.

WILLIAM RIND.

PROPOSALS,

For Circulating a Collection of New BOOKS in the City of ANNAPOLIS, and a Circle of Thirty Miles about it.

I. EVERY Subscriber shall pay One Guinea, for the Use of this Library for one Year.

II. Every Subscriber shall have the Use of one Book at a Time, for which he or she shall send a Ticket or Note, under his or her own Hand, and shall have the Liberty of changing them as often as he or she shall think proper.

III. Any Subscriber damaging any Book, shall make Satisfaction for the same.

IV. Every Subscriber shall have the Use of a Folio eight Weeks; a Quarto six Weeks; an Octavo four Weeks; and a Duodecimo three Weeks.

V. No Subscriber, upon any Pretence whatever, shall lend any Book belonging to this Collection, under the Penalty of paying for the Book so lent, a double Price.

Such Gentlemen and Ladies who intend to subscribe, are desired to give in their Names immediately, that the Library may be opened.

Prince-George's County, Jan. 10. 1763.

RAN away about the 8th Instant, from the Subscriber, an indented Servant Man, whose Name, as he says, is Jonathan Henry, which he will probably change as soon as he gets over the Bay, as I suppose he is gone that Way. He carried with him a Female Child, in order, as he pretends, to leave with his Wife's Friends: He had on when he went away, a Holland Shirt, Leather Breeches, an old brown Great-Coat, &c. 2

Whoever secures the said Servant, and brings him to me, or to William Reynolds at Annapolis, shall have a PISTOLE Reward, besides what the Law allows SAMUEL DUVALL BECK.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living in Annapolis, on the 28th of Decemb. last, a Convict Servant Man, named Richard Stevens, a Prussian Born, and Taylor by Trade, Speaks broken English, and very quick. He is about 5 Feet 8 Inches high, naturally of a pale Complexion, but when he ran away, his Face was much bruised, and had black Eyes, occasioned by Fighting. He carried with him sundry very good Clothes, viz. a very good brown Broadcloth Coat and Waistcoat, trimmed with the same Colour, a violet blue Suit of Cloth, with divers other Things too tedious to mention. 4

Whoever takes up the said Servant, and secures him so that his Master may have him again, shall have TEN POUNDS Reward, paid by JOHN DUCKER.

To be SOLD by the Subscriber, living near Delaware Bottom, to the highest Bidder, on Monday the 14th of February next, if fair, if not, the next fair Day after, for Ready Bills of Exchange, or Sterling Cash,

A LIKELY well grown young NEGRO WOMAN and CHILD, that has had the Small-Pox. The Sale to be precisely at Twelve o'Clock. ROBERT DAVIS.
